Mission and Project Summary:

Given the increasing difficulty for young musicians and composers to successfully pursue a career in classical music, and the lack of musical interest with younger generations, Euterpe VZW acts as a matchmaker by providing top-level concerts at minimum costs, thereby offering sufficient resources for young musicians and composers at the beginning of their career, and simultaneously attracting a young audience whose ears are made sensitive to the world of classical music. Since the covid-19 pandemic has proven especially hard for classical concerts, Euterpe VZW plans a series of concerts under the common denominator “young is unloved”, a twist to the saying “unknown often means unloved” (in French: “on aime peu ce qui nous est inconnu”).
